

Job Role

Senior – Associate Town Planner

Overview:

We are seeking to recruit a planning consultant at the senior to associate level to assist with existing projects, but with the drive to generate and manage their own projects in the medium term.

We are looking for an ambitious Town Planner to join our team, at this exciting time of growth and expansion in our consultancy.

The successful candidate will have exposure to a wide variety of projects including residential, commercial and education developments and will benefit from excellent career progression opportunities.

Qualifications and Experience:

Ideally candidates will have a degree (or equivalent) in a relevant planning discipline and be a Chartered Member of the RTPI, but candidates working towards this will also be considered. A minimum of one-year post-qualification town planning experience (within either the private or public sector) is essential for the role.

Duties:

- Advising on the development potential of land and buildings
- Assisting with the preparation of planning applications and appeals for a variety of residential, retail, commercial and industrial developments
- Providing policy advice and research
- Drafting representations to plan consultations
- Liaising with clients

In return, Barker Parry is offering a friendly and supportive working environment, competitive starting salary with benefits package and career progression opportunities.
